Isaiah 21:6 (KJV)

For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

The First Watch- A New Day Begins

6:00 pm to 9:00 pm

The Move of the Holy Spirit During the First Watch

Be still and know that I am God

The beginning of the evening watch -- a time to pull away, to quiet your spirit, to still your mind, to settle your heart. It is a time to repent and turn to God. It is time of meditation; to put aside all else and focus on God: His goodness, His tender mercy, His loving-kindness. A time to reflect on His Covenant plan for us, for He is a Covenant-keeping God. It is a time of prayer, and recitation of God's Holy Word. As we enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise, the sweet aroma of His presence fills the room. The atmosphere begins to change. It is a time of cleansing and refreshing, for where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty.

A prayer circle -- hands joined together in unbroken unity and extraordinary harmony with oneness of mind and heart.

The First Watch propelled us into his presence. We were ready to praise, worship to enjoy the presence of our Holy God. The "watchmen" who gathered during this watch came with great zeal and an urgent desire to share from their hearts what God was speaking to them. With each reading and each prayer we could sense what the Holy Spirit (the Comforter, the Counselor, the Helper, the Intercessor, the Advocate, the Strengtheners), was telling us. It is up to us to hear and obey. (A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: Proverbs 1:5)

ADMONITIONS

Do Not FEAR: False Evidence Appearing Real

For during this season the enemy would try to use fear tactics, but remember God's covenant with us, and the precious blood of His dear Son that covers our total being.

Scripture Reflections from The First Watch:

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: John 10:27

Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day. Psalm 25:5

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 2 Corinthians 12:9

Psalm 23, Isaiah 54:10, Philippians 4:4-7, Proverbs 1:5, Isaiah 61:10, Isaiah 40:28, 31, Psalm 98:1-4, Nehemiah 8:10, Acts 24:5, Mark 16:17-18

Communion – The Bread and The Wine

Each opportunity to receive communion is an invitation to come to the Table of Mercy and to experience an intimate encounter with our Lord. Our “bread”, the living bread, is Covenant bread for the body and bread for the soul. Partake of your portion of the “bread” daily.

The Second Watch - Exhortations

9:00 pm to 12:00 am

Expressions through songs, hymns and spiritual songs continued into the second watch. The Unity of the Spirit was most evident and the foundation laid from the First Watch continued into the night. The youth begin to answer the call to pray.

The Move of the Holy Spirit During the Third Watch

The Blowing of the Shofar -- The Battle Cry – A Summoning - True Warfare Begins

Prophetic Songs and Word

More youth come forth to participate. God's message prevailed through music, the dance and the waving of flags and banners.

Release the river of fire now in Jesus' name!
Jesus is in this place!
Jesus, fill this place with your Glory!

Prophetic Song:

Waves of His Glory
Baptize with Fire

and I want to be with you!

The Fourth Watch – The Final Watch – The Dawn

3:00 am to 6:00 am

The Move of the Holy Spirit During the Fourth Watch

During the Fourth Watch, final decrees were spoken as the new day dawned. It is a time to reflect on everything that had been revealed and released. The watchmen had once again been encouraged, strengthened, re-energized, recharged, renewed, recommitted and released.

The Conclusion of the Matter

The time for pretense is over. God is saying to us, His People, that it is time to Stand. Stand for Holiness and to Stand for Righteousness. To Stand for Him in our daily walk. We must be about our Father's business. We must learn to be sensitive to the things of the Spirit. We must return to our First Love.

The Watch has concluded; however, revelation will continue to come forth in the coming days as each one meditates on all that was said and done.

Watchmen, continue to Watch, continue to Pray, continue to Intercede for:

Thus saith the LORD,

*As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not;
for a blessing is in it:*

Isaiah 65:8a
